A tribute to heritage

This collection is an homage to the legendary Parisian collector Madeleine Castaing and the grandeur of the Hollywood Regency era. It evokes the romance of 19th-century Parisian flea markets, marrying chintz florals, bold paisleys, and neoclassical motifs with modern

The C

Belle É

A revival of 16th-century chintz florals, which found immense popularity in 19th-century Europe, this series brings forth large-scale tonal silhouettes set against bold backdrops. The result? Hand-knotted rugs that exude elegance and modern sophistication.

Eugénie

Named after Empress Eugénie, wife of Napoleon III, this collection mirrors the floral opulence of France's Second Empire. The sculpted, high-definition patterns, achieved through the Gultarash carving technique, lend each piece depth, texture, and refinement.

Malmaison

An ode to Napoleon Bonaparte's neoclassical retreat, Malmaison fuses Greco-Roman motifs with Napoleonic grandeur. Expect intricate garlands, bold Greek patterns, and exotic leopard-skin borders, redefining timeless opulence.

Marcellin

A tribute to Madeleine Castaing's inimitable design legacy, Marcellin embodies her iconic palette—fiery reds, sky blues, and lush garden greens. Intricate paisley motifs framed by ornamental geometric borders make these rugs a bold statement of French avant-garde style.

Kashmir

A revival of India's legendary Kashmiri paisley motifs, which captivated 18th-century Europe and shaped 19th-century French décor. These handwoven rugs echo the craftsmanship of Kashmiri shawls, featuring a vibrant spectrum of blues, reds, whites, and creams.

Ocelot & Leopard

Inspired by the allure of wildcat patterns in fashion and interiors, these handcrafted masterpieces offer a sustainable alternative to exotic furs. Effortlessly balancing boldness and neutrality, they anchor any space with classic-meets-contemporary appeal.
