The Chanel-owned atelier of prestigious yarns creates its first collection of couture carpets.

JAIPUR RUGS

VIMAR1991

Vimar1991 is distinguishable from other textile companies for their major focus on research, creativity, and customization. The headquarters, located in Carisio, Piemonte, is spread across 30,000sqm of Biella and Vercelli rice fields.

Style and elegance have always been the driving component to the creation process within the factory, producing the most unique and finest products in the fancy textile industry.

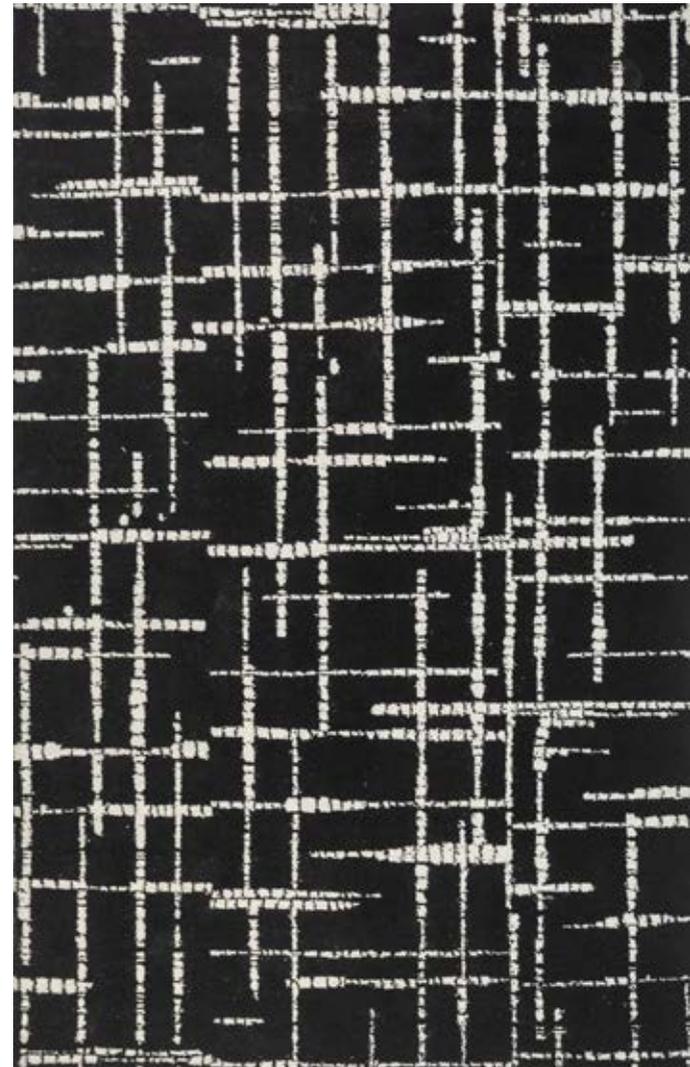

Constant experimentation with innovative fibers coupled with a historical savoir-faire allows the company to always be at the forefront of modern innovation. From here comes the exceptional variety of yarns that Vimar1991 offers to their clients. Creation and exclusivity are the keywords of their craftsmanship.

Being an Italian manufacturer of excellence, in June 2020 the company was acquired by Chanel with the aim of enhancing and continuing to pass on the precious savoir-faire as a heritage to be safeguarded and enriched.

The company has also launched a cutting-edge internal program that focuses on the traceability of raw materials and the recycling of production waste. After obtaining GOTS, GRS and RWS certifications, Vimar1991 continues its journey to help create a more sustainable world with ambitious goals in reducing its carbon footprint.
