JAIPUR RUGS

Tatiana de Nicolay

A Paris-based Designer, Tatiana de Nicolay is a tastemaker who honed her eye first as a fashion designer and then transitioned to enter the world of interior designing. Her joyful details and imagination speak of delicate beauty inspired by masterpieces across the arts. Her collection, Jardins du Monde is an ode to the architectural legacy of Albert Kahn. Taking inspiration from the Albert Kahn's Garden in Paris, where she imagines the beauty of seven gardens around the world, creating seven landscapes before translating them into carpet designs.

Gardens of the World

The Rug collection designed by Tatiana de Nicolay in collaboration with Jaipur Rugs is inspired by the marvelous Albert Khan Parisian Garden which invites you to take a lush and exotic plant walk.

She envisaged this collection of 7 rugs as 7 gardens around the world:

A Japanese garden, an English garden, a French garden, forests and meadows, a labyrinth, waterways and a pagoda. Each has an exotic feel that draws you into a different world.

Enough to feel absolutely out of place in all these gardens that invite you to travel.

The Garden Gate

Upon entering the collection, you first enter the garden through the gate; a large wooden trellis decorated with bamboo leaves.
