The background of the entire page is a complex, abstract rug pattern. It features a dense arrangement of geometric shapes, primarily triangles and irregular polygons, in various shades of red (from deep burgundy to bright red) and beige. The pattern has a textured, almost woven appearance, with some areas showing more detail than others, suggesting a high-quality rug design.

Inspiration

Drawing inspiration from artists like Picasso, Braque, Leger, and Corbusier, as well as the enchanting gardens of Kyoto, Kazumi Yoshida's designs exude an eclectic and exuberant charm through their vibrant colors. Although he embraces the art of simplification, Yoshida's creations give life to what can be best described as "Togenkyo" – a paradise for all five senses, meticulously placing each element precisely where it belongs to create a perfect harmony. In crafting this exceptional and unconventional collection, we have carefully curated a fusion of abstract and menagerie, each offered in a limited and numbered edition, adding an extra layer of uniqueness and exclusivity to these exceptional pieces.

When I traveled to Japan last Fall, I visited numerous gardens in Kyoto. I was stunned by its abstraction and beauty. Especially Karesansui.

You recreate imaginary landscape of mountains and seas only using rocks and pebble. Perfect simplification of elements represents profound "Togenkyo" Utopia for all 5 senses.

Placement of stones and sands and pebbles are in perfect harmony. "Less is more" is the underline principle of Japanese art.

I took this inspiration to contemporary interpretation in vibrant colors!! Oh, even in indigo!!
