Jaipur Rugs' new collaboration with New York-born and Delhi-based designer Peter D'Ascoli is a masterful fusion of heritage, craftsmanship and timeless design, and is an homage to the legendary Parisian collector Madeleine Castaing and the grandeur of the Hollywood Regency era.

Titled 'Glided Age Collection', it brings D'Ascoli's aesthetics of celebrating cultures to premium rugs and is a breathtaking ensemble of 32 meticulously crafted rugs across seven distinctive categories, each inspired by the artistic legacies of Europe and India. This collection evokes the romance of the 19th-century Parisian flea
