

Knotted Poise

WORLDWIDE via dova. PHOTOGRAPHY LOHMEYER

In Princess Pea's DAYS collection of hand-knotted carpets for Jaipur Rugs, this sterling blue tapestry feels like a gentle exhale — a moment suspended between chaos and calm. The tranquil hue of the backdrop communicates the ease with which a woman carries herself, even when her body and emotions are shifting within. Princess Pea imagined this collection as a dialogue between the unseen cycles of womanhood navigated through her strength, capacity to endure, and the monotony that shapes her days. We particularly love the striking silhouette, paired with rhythmic patterns in a soothing palette, which makes it a conversation starter. + jaipur.rugs.com/iv; instagram: @princesspearolls
