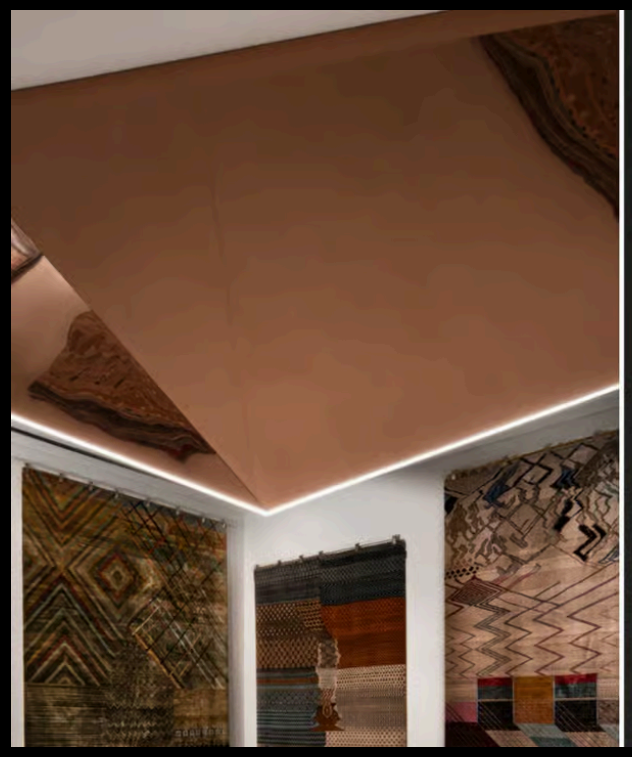
Goodlife

Award-winning architect Pallavi Dean talks about designing Jaipur Rugs' Mumbai store

• Pallavi Dean unveils new architectural design for Jaipur Rugs' store in Mumbai. • The store is located in the historic Empire Mills compound in Lower Parel. • Dean's design integrates the site's rich textile history with modern elements. • Features include fractal geometry patterns and origami-like metal birds. • The project revives a piece of Mumbai's industrial heritage within a functional retail space.

By Farah Khatoon

Published: 26 Jun 2026, 2:37PM | 2 min read

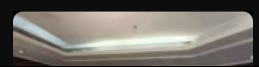


ADVERTISEMENT

Next Story

Unmish in New Alipore is a five-storey integrated center for special children

More Stories



The Astor Kolkata